multi-kilograms, the exact amount unknown, of a mixture and substance containing a detectable amount of heroin, and of a mixture and substance containing a detectable amount of cocaine, a Schedule I and II Narcotic Drug Controlled Substance. All in violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 846.

OBJECTS OF THE CONSPIRACY

It was one of the objects of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators would plan to possess with intent to distribute, and would possess with intent to distribute, multi-kilogram quantities of heroin and cocaine, and that once imported into the United States, that is Puerto Rico, would be further distributed.

It was one of the objects of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators would distribute heroin and cocaine and thereby derive substantial income from their illegal activities.

It was one of the objects of the conspiracy that the defendants would assist in arranging for the illegally obtained United States currency, representing proceeds of heroin and cocaine to be laundered to prevent the detection of the heroin and cocaine distribution.

MANNER AND MEANS USED TO FURTHER THE OBJECTS OF THE CONSPIRACY

Among the means used by the defendants and their co-conspirators to carry out the objects of the conspiracy and to ensure the success of their criminal organization were the following:

Second Superseding Indictment
Criminal No. 98-164(DRD)

1. It was part of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators would distribute the heroin and cocaine.

2. It was part of the conspiracy that the defendants and their co-conspirators would arrange for the illegally obtained United States currency from the sales of heroin and cocaine to be transferred to South America, St. Martin and elsewhere via wire transfer in an attempt to conceal the heroin and cocaine trafficking and the amounts derived therefrom.

OVERT ACTS

In furtherance of the conspiracy and to the effect the objects thereof, the defendants and co-conspirators committed, among others, the following overt acts in the District of Puerto Rico and elsewhere:

1. On or about July 6, 1998, Luis Gines Perez and Efren Andrades and others to the Grand Jury known and unknown, while aiding and abetting each other did knowingly, intentionally and unlawfully possess with intent to distribute approximately one and four tenths kilograms (1.4KG) (gross weight) of heroin, a Schedule I Narcotic Drug Controlled Substance.

2. On or about July 14, 1998, Luis Gines Perez did knowingly, intentionally and unlawfully possess with intent to distribute approximately fifty-eight and threee tenths grams (58.3 grams) (gross weight) of heroin, a Schedule I Narcotic Drug Controlled Substance.

3. On or about July 1, 1998, Luis Gines Perez assisted by Ricardo Melendez Perez, shot and killed Miguel Huertas, because they believed that Miguel Huertas had stolen money from the proceeds of their heroin and cocaine trafficking.

4. During the relevant time period herein, the defendants and other co-conspirators would obtain heroin and cocaine, which they further distributed, via suitcases which were sent to them which had the heroin and cocaine concealed in the lining of said suitcases.

5. During the relevant time period herein, a co-conspirator known to the grand jury functioned as a South American contact for Luis Gines Perez, in order to provide heroin and cocaine to Gines Perez' organization for further distribution.

6. During the relevant time period, defendants Luis Ginés Pérez and Ricardo Meléndez Pérez and others, at various times laundered drug sales proceeds through a known money laundering facility, which operated in an office location of a business in Old San Juan, Puerto Rico. The persons at this money laundering facility would launder monies by depositing the monies in bank accounts, which would then be transferred to locations in South America.

7. During June 1997, Luis Gines Perez and others known and unknown to the grand jury laundered monies that were proceeds of drug sales by sending approximately $41,300 via U.S. Postal money orders, from drugs which had been provided to Gines and his organization on a consignment basis.
